

PhD in nautical operations

- An overview of the process from start to finish

Phd
diploma awarded

Public defense and trial lecture

The title of the trial lecture should be announced 10 working days before the trial lecture is held

The public defense should be held within 5 months after the thesis was handed in

Application for minor changes to the thesis must be sent no more than 4 weeks prior to the committee's deadline

The committee should normally send their report within 3 months after receiving the thesis

The thesis is handed in at the home institution, along with the co-author statement, and other declarations (see § 20 in the regulations)

The main supervisor must alert the programme board when a student is planning on submitting the thesis

Final approval of the education plan must be completed before the thesis can be handed in

The mid-term evaluation should be held in the third or fourth semester

All changes to the education plan or committee of supervisors, must be approved by the programme board

The yearly progress report should be submitted before February 1 in Studentweb, every year.

Attend the first seminar in MFA-8010 as soon as possible after starting

Sign up for courses before February 1 in the spring semester and September 1 in the fall semester

Application for admission to the program must be sent to the PhD contact at your home institution, within 3 months after you started in the position.